Johnny Ashcroft
They’re A Weird Mob (RRH22/D24117)
A member of a show family and an enduring country artist with a string of radio hits. Extremely well-documented booklet with wonderful memorabilia from the artist’s own collection. Songs include his early recordings with Rodeo Records when Johnny travelled with the Slim Dusty Show. Johnny recorded Australia’s first 10 inch record album. Includes Little Boy Lost, Thunderbolt’s Lament and Playground of My Mind.

Florence Astral
One of the Wonder Voices (RRHD16/LRH453)
A double album prepared by Jamie Moffat. features this ‘lost’ operatic stars great performances that made her an international performer up there with the finest.

John Brownlee
Portrait (RRH17/LRH497)
From the stages of the metropolitan opera in New York, Milan, Paris and London comes the rare recordings of Adelaide singer John Brownlee. Little known in his native country this outstanding opera singer has been returned to the stage with this collection of songs from major opera recordings. Includes Don Giovanni, Salome, The Lord’s Prayer. Also singing with Brownlee are Dame Nellie Melba and Mirelle Bertioni. John Amadio accompanies on piano.

Frank Coughlan
King of the Trocadero (RRH4)
Australia’s Glenn Miller and the leader of our most famous dance bands including the renowned Trocadero Orchestra. This is wonderful Australian jazz and dance music. Highly spirited.

Smoky Dawson
When The Bloom Is On The Sage (RRH23/D24097)
Our very own singing cowboy and the face that appeared on every Kellogg’s corn flakes box for over a decade. Smoky and his horse Trigger were an important part of early radio and country music and this wonderful tribute album has many of his most successful songs plus a bonus of one of the early radio serials. Notes by Glenn A Baker plus rare photographs from the singers collection. Songs include Old Shep, There’s a Bridie Hanging on the Wall and Cool Water.

Bob Dyer
Pick a Box (RRH10)
In the 1940’s and 50’s Bob Dyer was our most popular radio and television star but he was also a hillbilly singer having recorded these songs in the late 1930’s. Also includes a complete program of Cop The Lot and Pick a Box.

Percy Grainger
Pleasant and Delightful (RRH14)
The renowned classical pianist and composer recorded on the duo art piano. This collection features Grainger’s folk song arrangements and is a real joy.

Barbara James
20th Century Blues (RRH19/LRH427)
This is a fantastic album by one of Australia’s most famous dance hall vocalists. Shades of Ella Fitzgerald and Dakota Statton and featuring some of the Trocadero’s best dance bands. Mostly from the 1940s this is such an enjoyable album. Includes Frank Coughlan Orchestra, The Cotton Pickers, The Dixielanders, Arthur Rosebery Orchestra and Des Tooley. Great songs too!

Bobby Limb
Sound Of Music (RRH29/D26566)
A musical salute to one of variety’s most-loved performers. All the television and stage stars are here on one CD including Frank Ward, Darryl Stewart, Rosalind Keen, Bill Newman, Dawn Lake and, of course, the Sound of Music Orchestra. Contains complete shows of the Mobil Radio Show, Original 1965 TV cast recording and Bobby Limb’s Centenary TV Show. Crazy songs like Abba Dabba Honeymoon, the Daughter of Rosie O’Grady and Baby, it’s Cold Outside.

Reg Lindsay
Down By The Old Ship Rail (RRH24/LRH448)
This outstanding collection captures a very young Reg Lindsay and what an amazing voice he had! Listen to the yodels and how he works his songs. Includes a Country Hour program plus Lovesick Blues, Baby Doll, I’m a Ladies Man, Way Out There plus some Reg Lindsay originals. Taken from early radio shows and transcripts this is 100% country joy. Notes by John Minson.
Yesterday’s Australia
20 Titles of Nostalgia

Tex Morton
Australia’s Yodelling Boundary Rider (RRH26/LRH446)
Taken from the 1940s these rare radio recordings see the great pioneer country singer telling monologues and singing his favourites. There's some classic yodelling too. Includes a Covered Wagon episode complete with theme and studio band. Includes Barnacle Bill the Sailor, My Blue Ridge Mountain Home, Ragtime Cowboy Joe, When the Cactus is in Bloom and Rio Grande. A grand salute to the father of Australian and Kiwi country music.

Dame Nellie Melba
Hello Covent Gardens (RRH15)
Her most successful recordings including operatic arias and popular songs. Extremely well documented booklet prepared by Dr Brownrigg of Screensound Australia. Includes all Nellie’s Covent Garden ‘farewells’.

Shirley Thoms
Australia’s Yodelling Cowgirl (RRH8)
The first Queenslander to be recorded in the 1940’s and the second female country singer in the nation. Original songs and some extraordinary yodelling.

Buddy Williams
The Happiest Days Of My Life (RRHD21/D89951)
One of the most successful Australian country musicians of all time. This double CD has Buddy introducing all his famous songs. It's a real delight and also guests Smoky Dawson and Tommy Emmanuel. Includes the Lonely Boundary Rider, Waiting for a Train, The Overlander Trail, Take Me Back to Tamworth. There’s also a radio telephone interview with Buddy and Bert Newton.

Strella Wilson
A Song For You And Me (RRH18/D24108)
This internationally famous soprano became the most celebrated singer of the early days, mostly 1950s, on ABC radio. A wonderful clear voice that shows why she was our ‘fireside favourite’. Extensive notes by Peter Dunbar Hall. Includes many popular operetta and stage musical songs with full accompaniment.

Various
Strike Up The Band (RRH28/D24103)
Rare Australian stage musicals from the 1940s with a spectacular cavalcade of operetta and stage stars. Includes early recordings of Dame Joan Sutherland, Albert Chappelle, Rita Pincefort, Alan Coad, Heather Kinnaird, Minnie Love, Marjorie Stedford, Strella Wilson and Joan Boots. None of these tracks have ever been released before. Extensive booklet by Frank van Straten.

Various
A Band In A Waistcoat Pocket (RRHD20)
A double album featuring historic harmonica players including famous names like Percy Spouse, Horrie Dargie and the North Sydney Tramways Mouth Organ Band. Companion to Ray Grieve’s fascinating book of the same name.

Various
Stars of Australian Stage And Radio, Vol 2 (RRH12/LRH430)
An hilarious romp through the early days of music hall and the evidence that Australia contributed some of the world’s most successful music hall artists. Includes a real cavalcade of fun - Albert Whelan, Florrie Forde, Flotsom and Jetson, Billy Williams etc Tracks include Pat Hanna’s Gospel According to Cricket, Yip! I Addy I Aye, Blinky Doodle I-aye, She’s a Lassie from Lancashire.

Various
Can I Sleep In Your Barn Tonight (RRH25/LHR447)
Hillbilly radio songs from the 1940’s and featuring wonderfully corny songs like The Song of the Prune, Barnacle Bill etc.

rouseabout@undercovermusic.com.au
www.undercovermusic.com.au
ROUSEABOUT RECORDS. KEEPING IT REAL.